

19th August 2013

Subject : Update on application for renewal of land concession of an oil palm estate of Univanich Palm Oil PCL

To : The President
Stock Exchange of Thailand

Further to our announcement dated 29th July 2013, concerning our application for Temporary Injunction and Request for Urgent Protection submitted to the Administrative Court in Nakhon Sri Thammarat, pending that Court's decision on the company's Petition dated 7th March 2013 which is currently under consideration by the Court.

The company has received a reply from the Court dated 14th August 2013. In that reply the Court has advised that since the relevant government authorities have not stopped the company from occupying and utilizing its investment in the concession area, pending a decision from the Court on the company's Petition relating to its application for lease renewal on 10,849 rai of the original 20,000 rai concession, there is no requirement for injunction or urgent protection.

The Court has also replied that as the Petition regarding renewal of the company's concession is under careful consideration by the Court, relevant Government agencies have full responsibility in that concession area to protect the property of the company and the property of the Government, in accordance with the law.

Please be informed accordingly.

Yours faithfully,
Univanich Palm Oil Public Co., Ltd.

John Clendon
Managing Director

cc : The Secretary-General
The Securities and Exchange Commission